- Candidate (or parent/carer) unhappy with a result (complainant to refer via exams officer to awarding body post-results services)
- Candidate (or parent/carer) unhappy with a centre decision not to support a clerical re-check, a review of marking, a review of moderation or an appeal (complainant to refer to the centre's internal appeals procedure)
- Centre fails to adhere to its internal appeals procedure
- Centre applied for the wrong post-results service/for the wrong script for a candidate
- Centre missed awarding body deadline to apply for a post-results service
- Centre applied for a post-results service for a candidate without gaining required candidate consent/permission

Additional grounds for complaint relating to results and post-results:

Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, City Academy Birmingham encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- This can be undertaken by contacting the school's Exams Officer straight away either by telephone or email giving full details of the concern or complaint.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Rebecca Bakewell - Head of centre

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 14 calendar days of the incident occurring and will be logged and acknowledged within 5 working days of receipt.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- email the Head of Centre giving full details of the concern/complaint including the name of the student affected, date(s) the incident(s) arose and the impact of the incident on the student in question.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 28 days of receiving the complaint.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- follow City Acadmey's internal appeals procedure and complete and return an internal appeals form.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 28 days of receiving the complaint.

The appeal will be referred to:

- R Bakewell (as detailed in the centre's internal appeals procedure)

It will be the responsibility of

R Bakewell (head of centre)

to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
